

GEORGE MUELLER SEEKING DIVORCE

Well-Known Salt Laker Files a Sensational Action Against His Wife.

COMPLAINT BASED UPON GROUNDS OF CRUELTY

Defendant in Case Is Now in Germany, the Plaintiff Sets Out.

George Mueller, proprietor of the Royal cafe and bakery on South Main street, filed a sensational suit for divorce from Mrs. Anna Mueller in the Third district court Tuesday. Incompatibility and cruelty are grounds upon which Mueller's complaint is based.

Mrs. Mueller's chief objection to him is that he is not a member of the German aristocracy, as Mrs. Mueller claims her parents were and as she claims to be. Mueller alleges that Mrs. Mueller told him he was far below the social scale and several times informed him she was ashamed to be seen in public with him and that she ought never to have married him. Once or twice she called him a boor, Mueller alleges.

They were married here Dec. 23, 1893, by the Rev. David Uiter, Mueller's priest, and have two children, Norma, 11 years old, and Ruth, 8 years old, now with the mother at Würzburg, Bavaria, Germany. For a few months after their marriage, Mrs. Mueller was affectionate towards him, Mueller says, but soon thereafter she began to treat him with contempt and disrespect, until his health was impaired through mental distress to the extent that his capacity to do business was affected.

Has Violent Temper.

Mrs. Mueller possesses a violent and uncontrollable temper and developed it to a point where, according to Mueller's complaint, when married they were living at the Richfield and it was necessary in the conduct of his bakery business for him to arise about 3:30 o'clock a. m. and deliver the goods, returning about 9 for his breakfast. For a time Mrs. Mueller arose and got his breakfast, but she soon discontinued this, telling him he was far below her socially and she did not feel called upon to do anything for him, and he had to get his breakfast elsewhere, Mueller says.

As time wore on, she became more neglectful, Mueller alleges. When he returned he found his apartments locked and when he remonstrated with Mrs. Mueller she flew into a violent rage and declared in a loud voice, audible to others, that she was a fool to marry him, that he was a very ordinary person and that she was ashamed of him as a husband. Owing to her neglect he gave up house-keeping and took meals down town, he says.

Then Mrs. Mueller began to pay visits to his place of business and to leave him out in front of everybody when she found some trifling thing that did not suit her, Mueller goes on. She was from a much better family than he, she said, while he was uneducated and ignorant and far below her.

Along about the middle of 1904, when he met her on the street one day, she stopped and berated him, telling him he ought to be home taking care of the baby, Mueller says.

In the fall of 1904, when he returned home about 8:30 o'clock one evening, she denounced him in a voice loud enough for all to hear, that he was a tramp and a loafer upon the streets, he continues.

Again, while living on Capitol avenue, she got mad one day and denounced him for his ignorance and painfully recalled that his sister was married to a drunkard and that she was too good for him, it is alleged.

Frequently, when he returned home from attending social affairs, she berated him until the small hours of the morning for his boorishness, she said, declaring that she was ashamed of him in the presence of other people for his lack of refinement, for she and her parents came from the German aristocracy, while he didn't know the first principle of politeness, Miller alleges.

This affected his health until he had to go to California for relief from mental distress, he says. In 1905 she visited his place of business and denounced him and when he tried to pacify her she declared that she would take everything away from him, he alleges. Her temper, he says, became so vicious and he was so frequent that the mental strain was too great and for relief he sent her and the children to Germany. When he visited her there two years ago she chided him for it and said he had no business to come, he retorts. In addition she told her friends that he was the owner of an immense factory and warned him not to enlighten them that he was in the restaurant and bakery business for fear it would injure her socially. She is unfit to have the children, Mueller says, and he demands their custody with the divorce.

Salesman

Wants position in Salt Lake territory. Has had 10 years' successful experience as salesman and manager of salesmen. Has been with present firm 8 years. Wants to make Salt Lake his home. Can sell anything anyone else can, sell. Write Ewert, care of Tribune.

Slashed With Razor.

One of the many personal feuds existing between the foreigners at the smelter of Elmhurst was responsible for John while he was on his vacation, in Birmingham Tuesday morning. The sheriff is searching the country for Mike Tazell, who is alleged to have committed the crime and who is hiding from the officers of the law. One of the cuts received by Dosocovitch required fifteen stitches.

Tourists All Eat

At Kniefel's Cafeteria, 117 So. Main.

Newspaper Man Is Loser.

W. L. Brown, who is a member of the Butte Miner staff, is on his way to Los Angeles to spend his vacation. He reported to the police Tuesday morning that his suit case had been broken into and a number of articles stolen, between Salt Lake City and Ogden. Brown stated that the robbery took place while he was in the dining car between Ogden and Salt Lake City.

Kodak Finishing.

Salt Lake Photo Supply Co., 142 Main.

M'BURNEY CUP IS WON BY Y. M. C. A.

Association Boys Honor Salt Lake in Efficient Educational Work.

JOHN DERN PRAISES CHRISTIAN BOYS' WORK

If Trophy Can Be Won Next Year, it Will Remain in This City.

To top off the honors and compliments which have been heaped upon Salt Lake City comes the announcement that the local Y. M. C. A. has again been awarded the McBurney cup, the international trophy for efficiency in educational work among boys. Never before has any city captured this cup twice and what is more, Salt Lake City has broken a record by winning the cup for twelve months instead of six as last year.

The McBurney cup is awarded annually to the association whose boys pass the largest number of international examinations, conducted by the board of examining in New York City. The winner of this part of the contest is entitled to hold the cup for half a year. Then in order to give the smaller towns an equal chance the cup is awarded for the second half of the year to the association passing the highest percentage of its boy membership in these difficult educational tests. But Salt Lake City wins both the contest for the large cities and the contest for small towns.

Standing of Cities.

The detailed standing of the cities is as follows:

City	Percentage
Salt Lake City, Utah	75.1
Indianapolis, Ind.	74.5
Montreal, Canada	74.0
Baltimore, Md.	73.8
Trenton, N. J.	73.5
St. Louis, Mo.	73.2
Troy, N. Y.	73.0
Cincinnati, O.	72.8
Dayton, O.	72.5
Newark, N. J.	72.2
Portland, Me.	72.0
St. Paul, Minn.	71.8
St. Louis, Mo.	71.5
Dayton, O.	71.2

Standing of Cities.

Naturally, the officers and friends of the Y. M. C. A. feel proud of this record. When asked to state his opinion of the victory, John Dern, the vice president of the association, said: "I consider this second winning of the McBurney cup a victory over which the entire city may justly be proud. When we consider how many cities all over this country were in this contest it is hard to believe that we have captured this trophy a second time."

"The boys who attended to their studies so well and passed the hard examinations so high and the teachers who guided the students deserve great credit. But one thing they must do. They must win the cup again next year, and then it will always stay where it belongs—in Salt Lake City."

W. W. Armstrong, the chairman of the educational department of the Y. M. C. A., was likewise greatly pleased at the news. When asked to express his feelings he said:

"Proud? Of course we are proud. Who has a better right to be proud than the Y. M. C. A. of Salt Lake City? We are wearing these days."

Reception Planned.

Plans for the reception of the trophy have not been fully completed. It will probably be brought here by Windsor V. Rice, president of the Y. M. C. A., who is at present in Montreal. The international Y. M. C. A. secretary, in sending congratulations, suggested that a steam calliope would alone be sufficient for the joy which the boys who won the cup had a right to express. The cup winners, who won one or more prizes, are: John Dern, Harry Barker, Jacob Brouws, Floyd E. Casteline, Ralph Casteline, Wm. Cline, James L. Farrow, Robert Farrow, Frank Farrow, Rollo Gallacher, George Given, Robt. Given, Robert Glenn, Arthur Gotberg, Harry Halton, Herman Hottinger, Francis James, Louis James, Edward R. Johnson, Frank Kirk, William Kneeb, Leo Kramer, Paul Kunkel, Cleve Larsen, Fred Newell, R. D. O'Brien, Reginald Pappé, C. Ralph Pendleton, Carl Peterson, John Pock, Joe Ralls, Howard Salt, Ross Seale, Paul Simon, Bert Smith, Ellisworth J. Spencer, E. Ed. Sperry, John T. Tazell, James W. Tazell, J. W. Tazell, and James Zes. A total of forty-three boys won the seventy-five points. The star point winner was Rollo Gallacher who passed in six examinations.

These were the instructors whose staffs were the international standards: H. J. Stearns, arithmetic; A. W. Brown, bookkeeping; C. R. Bradford, Boys' Group Course I; A. J. Hagen, Boys' Group Course II; W. N. Hough, English for Coming Americans; D. J. McKee, stenography and typewriting.

WATCH FOR THE BIG RED CARS

FOR POINT LOOKOUT.

Cars leave 2d So. and Main st. for Emigration Canyon at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. daily, except Sunday.

Bathing at Saltair. Nothing finer.

NEWSPAPERS PRINT

PICTURES OF CATHEDRAL

The Chicago Record-Herald of Sunday printed a two-column picture of the cathedral of St. Mary Magdalene in Salt Lake City and a brief description of the handsome edifice, which it pronounced the finest ecclesiastical structure west of the Missouri river. The Butte Miner ran a three-column picture and a story about the dedication.

"The new 5c and 10c store of E. P. Charlton & Co. just opened, 19 National Cash Registers purchased from Oscar Groshell, the Cash Register Man, 221 Main st. They are the largest users of National Cash Registers in the world."

Bathing at Saltair. Nothing finer.

Bathing at Saltair—nothing finer.

CITIZENS COMMITTEE IS NOW GETTING BUSY

Plan Is to Put So-Called Independent Ticket in Field This Fall.

SECURES LAND ON OLD FLATHEAD RESERVE

S. S. Stone, Jr., Is His Name and He Was Born in Zion; Father Lives Here.

The temporary citizens' committee, consisting of five from each municipal ward in the city, appointed to promote an independent citizens' movement for the coming city election, met Tuesday evening at the office of C. B. Felt in Market street.

The committee was organized with C. B. Felt, former city auditor, as chairman; L. E. Hall, first vice-chairman; George N. Lawrence, second vice-chairman; and W. H. Lovejoy, secretary.

It was decided to hold the city convention to nominate a city ticket on or about September 15th at the Salt Lake theatre.

A subcommittee of five, with A. S. Riser, chairman, was appointed to arrange for a public mass meeting some evening next week at which the first gun of the citizens' campaign will be fired and the plan of campaign outlined.

SUNNYSIDE ADDITION

The best buy in Salt Lake is where you will double your money in less than a year. A. N. HUMPHRIES.

78 W. 2nd South st.

WATCH FOR THE BIG RED CARS

FOR POINT LOOKOUT.

Cars leave 2d So. and Main st. for Emigration Canyon at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. daily, except Sunday.

Martin Coal Co., 55 So. Main.

All kinds of coal. Both phones 320.

CLARENCE P. GIAUQUE

RESIGNS POSITION

Son of Board Member Quits

Second Time and Resignation Is Accepted.

Clarence P. Giauque, the young son of Arnold G. Giauque, member of the board of education from the Second ward, evidently is not going to be a janitor in the city's public schools this year, but young Al Newman, a son of William J. Newman, the life member from the Third ward, who, with young Giauque, became enmeshed in the investigation into the glaring irregularities in Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds George M. Bridwell's department, will retain his place as janitor at the Union school, which goes to show that the board hasn't lost its faith in close corporation.

For the second time young Giauque tendered his resignation as janitor at the Lincoln school, chairman of this committee, in spite of his repeated declaration that the employment of his son was without his knowledge and consent. The disclosure of Mr. Giauque's withdrawal of his son's resignation came on in the board's somewhat unavailing investigation into the irregularities in Mr. Bridwell's department, which has not been completed, but apparently has been allowed to die.

William J. Tice, a relative of the Bridwell family, was also re-employed as janitor at the Poplar Grove school by the board Tuesday. The other janitors employed by the board Tuesday were:

John Sundstrom, high school; Thomas Leslie, Science building; Robert Stoker, Bryant; Peter Olin, Bonneville; Rudolph Reusser, Emerson; Charles Fletcher, Fremont; William Leatham, Jackson; Ellen Rasmussen, Jordan; Mrs. Caroline Middleton, Lake Brooke; William Graham, Lafayette; Albert Dorn, Longfellow; C. W. Rook, Quinby; Ar. Peterson, Webster; A. Newman, Union; C. W. Rodger, engineer, high school and gymnasium; O. R. Ostler, gymnasium; J. G. West, Wasatch; John R. Price, Waterloo; Emil Lompe, Lincoln; E. Nelson, Quebec; Mrs. J. H. Sainsbury, Summer addition; William J. Tice, Poplar Grove; Mrs. Thomas Laughran, Emerson addition; Mrs. M. J. Gill, Hamilton Manual Training; Pauline Brown, board rooms; Stephen H. Walker, Washington; Lewis W. Jones, Franklin; August Tadjie, Riverside.

The resignation of Thomas Jones as janitor at the Franklin was accepted.

Tony Arnold Carriage Co.

Day and night. Bell Main 26. Ind. 26.

NOTED WEATHER MAN

IS VISITING THE CITY

The "weather man" at the Mount Weather observatory, near Washington, D. C., Tuesday and during a few hours visit in the city was the guest of Dr. Robert Hyatt at the local meteorological office. Prof. Henry is on his way home from San Francisco, where he has been doing general experiment work in the mountains for the government—recording temperatures at high altitudes by means of self-recording instruments attached to kites, etc. The figures he has thus obtained will be compared with the observations taken at Mount Weather.

Prof. Henry has twelve men under him at his station near Washington, all scientists of high standing, and to him is entrusted all of the government's experimental work in connection with the weather bureau. Prof. Henry left over the Rio Grande Western for Denver in the afternoon, and from there will go on to Washington, making experiments at different points along the route.

FREE AUTO TRIPS EVERY HOUR

To Laurelhurst ACRE lot addition on East Bench. Phone and make appointments. Chandler & Soules Co. Ind. 167; Bell 2159.

INNIS' BAND AT SALT AIR

Friday, Sat., Sun., Aug. 20, 21, 22. Two free concerts daily, 80 men. Several soloists. Very fine.

"The stars incline, but do not compel."

HOROSCOPE BY COSETTE.

Wednesday, August 18, 1909.

Now doth a star occult inspire Old embers with undimmed fire.

Uranus in trine and Neptune in sextile to the moon mark this day.

This position of Uranus takes away much of its power for affecting domestic affairs, married people and law, but still leaves enough menace to make it advisable to avoid conflict and personal antagonism to small beginnings of temper that may grow to large results of anger.

The planet is fortunate this day for undertakings out of the every-day routine, for changes of method and occupation, and for improving existing conditions.

Nephtis, ruling for permanence and continuity, greatly aids the benefic aspect of Uranus toward betterment in all things. This should be, therefore, an exceedingly fortunate day for the resolution of the occult and proceeding forthwith to carry them into effect.

The planet favors the solution of spiritual problems and the students of the occult to a better understanding of each other.

This day should be good for finding old errors that have long puzzled the searcher, for adjusting tangled accounts and for coming to settlement of disputed statements or of cases over which there has been long disagreement.

Teachers, lecturers, professors, historians, accountants, collectors, antiquaries, astronomers, students of the occult and moral sciences, mathematicians and naturalists should find the day auspicious for research and solution of problems.

Those with this birthdate are under aspects that usually grant great executive ability with spontaneous thought. They should cultivate self-reliance to the utmost, that these qualities may be developed in the best direction.

Children are born today under signs indicating a highly developed psychic nature. They may suffer from a disposition to enlarge their troubles.

FORMER SALT LAKER WINS A FORTUNE

Draws Seventh Number in Uncle Sam's Land Lottery in Montana.

SECURES LAND ON OLD FLATHEAD RESERVE

S. S. Stone, Jr., Is His Name and He Was Born in Zion; Father Lives Here.

Among those who drew a prize in the government land lottery in the Flathead reservation was a native of Utah in the person of S. S. Stone, Jr., who now resides in Baynes, British Columbia. Mr. Stone drew the seventh number and his claim is worth from $20,000 to $25,000. There were 2000 claims in the reserve.

Mr. Stone is 33 years of age. He was born in Salt Lake City, where his father now resides. His mother, who is ill, is in California. Mr. Stone left Salt Lake three years ago to better his fortune, possibly, going to northern Montana and afterwards to Baynes, B. C., where he now resides. His father is much elated over the good fortune of his son.

There were several other Utahans who drew prizes. They are: Gerald Sullivan, Garfield, whose number was 1447; Abraham L. Ward, West Jordan; Artin Schwende, Salt Lake City; Buck King, Castle Gate; Hans C. Hansen, Salt Lake City; M. Shagnessy, Salt Lake; Fred Franklin, Salt Lake; William Parks, Salt Lake; G. P. Spindel, Salt Lake; J. A. Brown, Ogden. The winners, excepting Mr. Sullivan, are well down on the list and will get land probably a considerable distance back in the reservation.

Humors Wife's Whim

AND LOSES PROPERTY

Joseph Hause Brings Suit to Quiet Title of Real Estate.

Joseph Hause's desire to humor a whim of his wife, Fannie E. Hause, now dead, has seriously jeopardized his title to property in lot 6, block 45, plat B, Salt Lake City survey, according to a complaint to quiet title filed against Rose Cooper, Fred, John and Joseph Bronger, May Winters and Alice Appel by Hause in the Third District court Tuesday.

Hause says that to humor a whim of his wife, he deeded the property to her. The transfer was without consideration but with the express understanding that she was to deed it back to him at her death, and in consideration of this agreement he was to advance and spend approximately $4000 in improving the property.

Mrs. Hause deeded the property back to him on March 14, 1907. On March 14, following, she died. Soon after her death he recorded the deed with the county recorder, but before the deed was recorded this notation got on to the deed, in the margin, in some mysterious way:

"This deed not delivered until April, 1907."

This notation was copied by the recorder, but it is not in the deed, and he wants it stricken out. Now, in spite of the fact that they have paid none of the taxes and made no improvements upon the property, the defendants come in and set up an adverse claim to the property. Hause alleges, the Cooper woman having petitioned the probate division for a distribution among them, and he wants the court to forever quiet the title in him.

This notation was copied by the recorder, but it is not in the deed, and he wants it stricken out. Now, in spite of the fact that they have paid none of the taxes and made no improvements upon the property, the defendants come in and set up an adverse claim to the property. Hause alleges, the Cooper woman having petitioned the probate division for a distribution among them, and he wants the court to forever quiet the title in him.

This notation was copied by the recorder, but it is not in the deed, and he wants it stricken out. Now, in spite of the fact that they have paid none of the taxes and made no improvements upon the property, the defendants come in and set up an adverse claim to the property. Hause alleges, the Cooper woman having petitioned the probate division for a distribution among them, and he wants the court to forever quiet the title in him.

This notation was copied by the recorder, but it is not in the deed, and he wants it stricken out. Now, in spite of the fact that they have paid none of the taxes and made no improvements upon the property, the defendants come in and set up an adverse claim to the property. Hause alleges, the Cooper woman having petitioned the probate division for a distribution among them, and he wants the court to forever quiet the title in him.

This notation was copied by the recorder, but it is not in the deed, and he wants it stricken out. Now, in spite of the fact that they have paid none of the taxes and made no improvements upon the property, the defendants come in and set up an adverse claim to the property. Hause alleges, the Cooper woman having petitioned the probate division for a distribution among them, and he wants the court to forever quiet the title in him.

This notation was copied by the recorder, but it is not in the deed, and he wants it stricken out. Now, in spite of the fact that they have paid none of the taxes and made no improvements upon the property, the defendants come in and set up an adverse claim to the property. Hause alleges, the Cooper woman having petitioned the probate division for a distribution among them, and he wants the court to forever quiet the title in him.

This notation was copied by the recorder, but it is not in the deed, and he wants it stricken out. Now, in spite of the fact that they have paid none of the taxes and made no improvements upon the property, the defendants come in and set up an adverse claim to the property. Hause alleges, the Cooper woman having petitioned the probate division for a distribution among them, and he wants the court to forever quiet the title in him.

This notation was copied by the recorder, but it is not in the deed, and he wants it stricken out. Now, in spite of the fact that they have paid none of the taxes and made no improvements upon the property, the defendants come in and set up an adverse claim to the property. Hause alleges, the Cooper woman having petitioned the probate division for a distribution among them, and he wants the court to forever quiet the title in him.

This notation was copied by the recorder, but it is not in the deed, and he wants it stricken out. Now, in spite of the fact that they have paid none of the taxes and made no improvements upon the property, the defendants come in and set up an adverse claim to the property. Hause alleges, the Cooper woman having petitioned the probate division for a distribution among them, and he wants the court to forever quiet the title in him.

This notation was copied by the recorder, but it is not in the deed, and he wants it stricken out. Now, in spite of the fact that they have paid none of the taxes and made no improvements upon the property, the defendants come in and set up an adverse claim to the property. Hause alleges, the Cooper woman having petitioned the probate division for a distribution among them, and he wants the court to forever quiet the title in him.

This notation was copied by the recorder, but it is not in the deed, and he wants it stricken out. Now, in spite of the fact that they have paid none of the taxes and made no improvements upon the property, the defendants come in and set up an adverse claim to the property. Hause alleges, the Cooper woman having petitioned the probate division for a distribution among them, and he wants the court to forever quiet the title in him.

This notation was copied by the recorder, but it is not in the deed, and he wants it stricken out. Now, in spite of the fact that they have paid none of the taxes and made no improvements upon the property, the defendants come in and set up an adverse claim to the property. Hause alleges, the Cooper woman having petitioned the probate division for a distribution among them, and he wants the court to forever quiet the title in him.

This notation was copied by the recorder, but it is not in the deed, and he wants it stricken out. Now, in spite of the fact that they have paid none of the taxes and made no improvements upon the property, the defendants come in and set up an adverse claim to the property. Hause alleges, the Cooper woman having petitioned the probate division for a distribution among them, and he wants the court to forever quiet the title in him.

This notation was copied by the recorder, but it is not in the deed, and he wants it stricken out. Now, in spite of the fact that they have paid none of the taxes and made no improvements upon the property, the defendants come in and set up an adverse claim to the property. Hause alleges, the Cooper woman having petitioned the probate division for a distribution among them, and he wants the court to forever quiet the title in him.

This notation was copied by the recorder, but it is not in the deed, and he wants it stricken out. Now, in spite of the fact that they have paid none of the taxes and made no improvements upon the property, the defendants come in and set up an adverse claim to the property. Hause alleges, the Cooper woman having petitioned the probate division for a distribution among them, and he wants the court to forever quiet the title in him.

This notation was copied by the recorder, but it is not in the deed, and he wants it stricken out. Now, in spite of the fact that they have paid none of the taxes and made no improvements upon the property, the defendants come in and set up an adverse claim to the property. Hause alleges, the Cooper woman having petitioned the probate division for a distribution among them, and he wants the court to forever quiet the title in him.

This notation was copied by the recorder, but it is not in the deed, and he wants it stricken out. Now, in spite of the fact that they have paid none of the taxes and made no improvements upon the property, the defendants come in and set up an adverse claim to the property. Hause alleges, the Cooper woman having petitioned the probate division for a distribution among them, and he wants the court to forever quiet the title in him.

This notation was copied by the recorder, but it is not in the deed, and he wants it stricken out. Now, in spite of the fact that they have paid none of the taxes and made no improvements upon the property, the defendants come in and set up an adverse claim to the property. Hause alleges, the Cooper woman having petitioned the probate division for a distribution among them, and he wants the court to forever quiet the title in him.

This notation was copied by the recorder, but it is not in the deed, and he wants it stricken out. Now, in spite of the fact that they have paid none of the taxes and made no improvements upon the property, the defendants come in and set up an adverse claim to the property. Hause alleges, the Cooper woman having petitioned the probate division for a distribution among them, and he wants the court to forever quiet the title in him.

This notation was copied by the recorder, but it is not in the deed, and he wants it stricken out. Now, in spite of the fact that they have paid none of the taxes and made no improvements upon the property, the defendants come in and set up an adverse claim to the property. Hause alleges, the Cooper woman having petitioned the probate division for a distribution among them, and he wants the court to forever quiet the title in him.

This notation was copied by the recorder, but it is not in the deed, and he wants it stricken out. Now, in spite of the fact that they have paid none of the taxes and made no improvements upon the property, the defendants come in and set up an adverse claim to the property. Hause alleges, the Cooper woman having petitioned the probate division for a distribution among them, and he wants the court to forever quiet the title in him.

OLD-TIMER ENJOYING VISIT TO SALT LAKE

Fred Newcomer of Wyoming Is Here After Many Years.

THIS IS DECISION OF STATE WARDEN CHAMBERS

Citizens Will Now Take Steps to Properly Protect the Bass Fry.

Fred F. Newcomer of Sheridan, Wyo., expects to finish his first visit to Salt Lake since 1867 and to leave for his home Wednesday. Mr. Newcomer, who is a prosperous ranchman, came to Salt Lake to attend the G. A. R. reunion accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. E. S. Smith, and says he has had the time of his life.

Mr. Newcomer served through the war in the Eleventh Maryland infantry in the Eighteenth infantry after the war. He came to Salt Lake with that regiment in 1866, the trip requiring eighty-three days. He tells interesting stories of the early days here. He heard the first sermon preached in the Salt Lake tabernacle and was present when the foundation of the southeast corner of the temple was brought flush with the ground. He and his fellow soldiers bought tickets for performances in the Salt Lake theatre, paying for the tickets with bacon and coffee. About the